

The G2 Protégé Journey

Michael Twine, CEO

G2 Background

- Formed June 2000
- BWXT Y-12 experience
- Approximately 30 employees at BWXT Y-12
- Steady growth

Mentor-Protégé Prerequisites

- Should be of value to both parties (beyond dollars)
- Protégé point of contact should be a high-ranking company representative
- Protégé should be aggressive
- Agreement should be flexible
- Protégé should have an assigned mentor point of contact

Mentor-Protégé Benefits

- Direct benefits
 - Policy and procedure reviews
 - Insight into customer's future direction
 - Increased exposure of capabilities
- Indirect benefits
 - Contract renewals
 - Intangibles (more personal communications)

Mentor-Protégé Challenges

- Schedules
- Meeting locations

Level of Communication

- Very flat structure
- Weekly meetings
- Attend initial meetings with new organizations

Recommendations

You will get out of the program what you put into it!

Make the program work for you!

